

Source: Detroit Institute of Arts, http://www.dia.org/portrait_studio/wall.html#

Na'Kyah, The James and Grace Lee Boggs School, 2014

“We go on tons of field trips. Other schools, we really don’t have singing classes with everybody at every school. So, at this school we just had Joe Riley come in and we had some songs that we sang. We named our school after Miss Grace and James Boggs. At the beginning of the year of the first week of school... Grace Boggs and Joe Riley came and Grace Boggs talked about her life and Joe Riley sang songs with us. I like this school, and it’s awesome, and I think that other people should come.”