Ron, East Side Riders, 2013 (printed 2014)

“I mean it was different reactions, some people laughed. A lot of people laugh when they hear the radios on the bike. They go, ‘I can’t believe that’s no radio on there.’ When they get up close, they be like, ‘that’s real nice. That’s real nice.’ But they were just laughing at us. But we still have fun. And they want one, but they don’t want to be like ‘ok give me one,’ they just quick to laugh. Some people, you know, downgrade, but it comes with it. It’s all good. We just keep it moving. East Side. Keep moving.”
