

CAM INTERNSHIPS

USF Contemporary Art Museum accepts a limited number of University of South Florida students for unpaid, course-credit internships each semester.

Interns will spend time in several departments to gain valuable experience with the skills and processes needed to operate a museum. Interns will collaborate with museum faculty, staff, and other students in the cohort to complete projects in collection and exhibition management, exhibition design, preparation, curation, museum education, marketing & communications, and security.

INTERNSHIP APPLICATION INFORMATION

CAM is seeking applicants for a Summer 2026 internship cohort. Internships are unpaid and for credit only. Interns will register for 3 credit hours during the Summer C session.
